Part III: Essay Questions

1. What do you hope to gain from the experience as an Israel Religious Action Center Fellow? What do you believe you can contribute to the Israel Religious Action Center, Israel-Diaspora relations, and Israel as a whole during your time at IRAC?

(Do not exceed one page, typed single spaced, Times New Roman 12)

2. Please tell us about a social justice issue particularly close to your heart.

(Do not exceed one page, typed single spaced, Times New Roman 12)

Part IV: Recommendations

Please provide 2-3 recommendations from individuals who are familiar with you both on a personal and an academic level, and who can testify to your character and capabilities. One recommendation should be from an academic source. IRAC will also need a letter of recommendation from a Jewish community leader. (Please know that in order to receive a work permit while in Israel, you must have a letter from your Rabbi, recognizing you as a member of a Jewish congregation.)

Part V: Resume

Please attach a resume to this application.

 About IRAC: IRAC occupies a unique place in the social and religious landscape of Israel: it is the only organization that infuses social justice advocacy with the spiritual energy and humane worldview of Progressive Judaism. The public and legal advocacy arm of the Reform Movement in Israel, IRAC was founded in 1987 with the goals of advancing pluralism in Israeli society and defending the freedoms of conscience, faith, and religion. IRAC uses litigation, legislation, public policy and advocacy to advance civic equality. These activities have established IRAC as the leading Jewish organization working to strengthen the democratic character of Israeli society.
